

Provider Closed Days

If you claim with KidKare, please remember to mark the Provider calendar for any days or partial days you are closed. Marking the calendar helps ensure your Food Program claim is processed correctly.

First Click on Calendar > Provider. Next drag the Closed for Business banner to the day or days you are closed. If you are only closed part of a day, click on the meals and snacks you served. You will see the meal turn from a blue background (closed) to a white background (open).

Tuna Crescent Rolls

- 1 8-count tube crescent rolls
- (each roll must weigh at least 8.5 gm after baking)
- 1 12-oz can chunk style, water packed tuna, drained
- 1/4 mayonnaise (or less to taste)
- 1/3 cup frozen mixed vegetables, thawed
- 1/2 tsp. onion powder
- 1/2 cup shredded cheese, American or cheddar

Preheat oven to 350 °F. Unroll raw crescent dough and separate into triangles. In a small bowl mix tuna, mayonnaise, vegetables, onion powder and cheese. Combine well. Spoon 1/8th of the mixture onto each dough triangle and roll up. Place rolls on baking sheet. Bake at 350 F. for about 15 minutes or until rolls are golden brown. Serve warm.

Yield: 4 servings (2 rolls per serving)

Serving Size: Each 2-roll serving provides a grain (1/2 ounce equivalent) and a meat alternate at lunch/supper for children 3-5 years.
